

Lesson Resources for Moving On

Lesson 6

Saints and Famous Followers of Jesus

A general website for saints etc : <http://www.justus.anglican.org/resources/bio/biochron.html>

Saint David: <http://www.saintdavid.org.uk>

Mary Jones: <http://www.biblesociety.org.uk>

Click HERE for the Mary Jones story and photographs of her cottage as it is today and her grave.

John Wesley: <http://www.irishmethodist.org>

Janani Luwum: <http://www.justus.anglican.org/resources/bio/biochron.html>

Church of Ireland: <http://www.ireland.anglican.org>

Lesson 7

Useful links to Judaism are:

<http://www.shamash.org>

<http://www.rmplc.co.uk/eduweb/sites/carolrb/judaism/judai1.html>

<http://www.re-xs.ucs.ac.uk/re/places>

and there are many more sites on Judaism which you could search for through <http://www.theresite.org.uk>

Lessons 12-14

<http://www.culham.ac.uk> is a very good starting point for festivals eg Christmas.

Also a quick browse through Advent/Christmas resources on <http://www.theresite.org.uk> will provide much in the way of art, music, crafts and stories.

Lesson 19

Virtual visits of churches are becoming popular.

There are many available at: <http://www.educhurch.org.uk>

Also links are provided from <http://www.theresite.org.uk>

Check for your local church on the Church of Ireland website Ireland.anglican.org as many churches have photographs. Cathedrals such as <http://www.cathedral.cork.anglican.org> (St. Fin Barre's Cathedral) have extensive websites. Check for your diocesan cathedral. A full list of cathedral web site addresses is available in the SteppingOut resources.

A full list of cathedral web site addresses is available in the SteppingOut resources.

See photographs in Photo Gallery of communion silver and baptisms.

Lesson 20

Link to <http://www.biblesociety.org.uk>

Lesson 22

As with Christmas there are crafts and stories available through links from <http://www.theresite.org.uk> and <http://www.culham.ac.uk>

Lesson 28

There are photographs of fonts on the photo gallery pages.